

JESUS: THE GREATEST LIFE OF ALL
ANALYSIS OF A COURTROOM FIASCO
SELECTED SCRIPTURES

The Heart of the Matter

Jesus is the only person to live His entire life without doing anything wrong, yet He was arrested, tried, convicted, and condemned to suffer a punishment normally reserved for the Roman Empire's worst criminals. His arrest was a betrayal, His trials a farce, His convictions illegal, and His punishment a travesty of justice. Yet through it all, He remained calm, He answered questions honestly, He spoke the truth with dignity, and He calmly resolved to allow the Father to vindicate Him at the proper time. We would do well to imitate Christ in our response to the injustices we experience in our lives.

Discovering the Way

1. General Observations about Jesus's Trials

Jesus went through six trials—three religious and three civil—and though all were a farce, the first three were illegal.

2. The First Trial (John 18:19–23)

Jesus appeared before Annas, the former high priest and father-in-law of the current high priest.

3. The Second Trial (Mark 14:53, 55–65; John 18:24)

Jesus appeared before the high priest, Caiaphas.

4. The Third Trial (Mark 15:1; Luke 22:66–71)

Jesus appeared before the Sanhedrin, the Jewish Supreme Court.

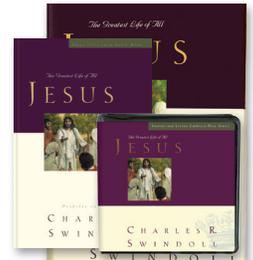

Starting Your Journey

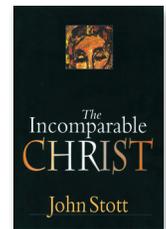

If you've known the injustice and humiliation of unfair treatment, don't lash out but entrust yourself to Him who judges righteously.

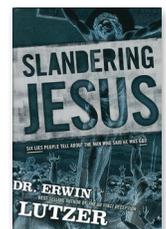

Tools for Digging Deeper

Jesus: The Greatest Life of All
by Charles R. Swindoll
softcover book, CD series,
and Bible Companion

The Incomparable Christ
by John Stott
softcover book

Slandering Jesus
by Dr. Erwin Lutzer
hardcover book

For related resources, please call:
USA 1-800-772-8888
AUSTRALIA 1300 467 444
CANADA 1-800-663-7639
UK 0800 915 9364
or visit www.insight.org or www.insightworld.org

