

REVELATION—UNVEILING THE END, ACT III: THE FINAL CURTAIN

TURNING THE WORLD RIGHT-SIDE UP

REVELATION 20:1–10

The Heart of the Matter

Following the battle of Armageddon, a great victory for the Lord and His saints, Satan will be bound and sealed away for a thousand years. And Christ will return to establish His kingdom on the earth. At the end of the Millennium (the period of a thousand years), Satan will be released, only to suffer ultimate defeat and be consigned to the lake of fire forever.

Discovering the Way

1. What's Wrong? Why Aren't Things as They Should Be?

First, Satan is presently allowed to have his way. Second, Jesus is not yet in authority on the earth. And finally, unrighteous people are in the majority and in authority.

2. What's Needed? How Can Things Be Turned Right-Side Up? (Revelation 20:1–6)

After Satan is bound, the King of kings and His army of saints will come to this earth. Jesus will take His place of absolute authority. He will physically reign as King over Israel, and His influence and authority will embrace the entire world.

3. How Long? Will This Peaceful Kingdom Last Forever? (Revelation 20:2–10)

After his thousand-year imprisonment, Satan will be briefly released from the abyss. But as he gathers the enemies of God for war, flames from heaven will devour them. Then God will finally and permanently consign the devil and all of his cohorts to the lake of fire.

Starting Your Journey

The events described in Revelation 20:1–10 span a period of a thousand years some time in the future. So, what do these events have to do with us today?

1. We need to live consistently and realistically while things are upside-down.
2. We must witness faithfully and fervently.
